Use this one:

The Minister of Public Safety conveyed his support via call/email to the Premier of Ontario (9 February 2022). He has been in regular contact with the Mayor of Ottawa and Mayor of Windsor, including through the tripartite discussions. His staff have also engaged with both Mayor's offices.

He engaged with the Premier of Alberta via texts and call on February 2 and February 9 and on a follow up call with Premier Kenney and Minister Savage, Acting Minister of Justice and Solicitor General of Alberta on February 7, 2022. He also previously spoke with Minister Savage on Feb 1, exchanged texts with her on Feb 5, and they spoke again on Feb 9.

The Minister also spoke with his counterpart in Manitoba, Minister Goertzen on Feb 15 where they exchanged updates on Emerson and Minister Mendicino offered additional assistance, and noted the Emergencies act would make it easier to provide additional assets and resources rapidly to law enforcement to end current blockades, as well as to prevent future blockades. Goertzen acknowledged the point and they agreed to keep in touch.

He participated in FMM with PM on Feb 14 and on an Opposition leaders call with PM on Feb 10.
